THIS POLICY APPLIES TO:

All employees of the District Council of Streaky Bay

SUMMARY

This Code of Conduct addresses the ethical responsibilities of all staff and details the high level of accountability and transparency expected in all activities by staff members of the District Council of Streaky Bay. This Code provides a guide and standard of expectation for all staff and insists on commitment to the highest standard of ethical and professional behaviour.

PURPOSE

- To establish District Council of Streaky Bay's expectations with regard to actions/behaviour that may lead to disciplinary action.
- To identify specific examples of the types of conduct or performance not acceptable in the workplace.
- To set out District Council of Streaky Bay's disciplinary, counselling and dismissal procedures that will be applied to manage unacceptable performance or conduct.

SCOPE

The Code of Conduct applies to all employees of District Council of Streaky Bay. When a new employee starts with Council, it is a condition of his/her employment that the Code of Conduct is accepted and abided by during the course of his/her employment.

APPLICATION

The Code of Conduct is divided into two main categories: serious misconduct and less serious misconduct. Where it is substantiated that an employee has engaged in such conduct, District Council of Streaky Bay's disciplinary procedures shall apply.

SERIOUS MISCONDUCT

Serious Misconduct occurs where an employee's actions or behaviours are considered serious in nature and if substantiated, may result in instant dismissal.

The below list contains examples of the types of actions, which may constitute serious misconduct. Note: The list is not limited to, but is inclusive of the following:
